New Hog Prices Are Inadequate A.F.U. Contends

Deer last fall, under auspices of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, an agreement of price was $20 per hundred.

"Be it resolved that we demand an increase to $20 per 100 pounds dressed weight at all shipping points in Alberta."

One delegate debating the resolution, told the convention, "In my opinion, the new bonus payments are one of the biggest jokes ever put up to us. It gives packers the opportunity to grade our hogs below 'B'."

Another speaker said, "I believe our representatives have secured for us the best possible agreement. But it's not good enough yet. The 'B3' hog class is the dangerous one, and the one we will get robbed on."

"Could we not put our own grader in with the government grader," a delegate asked.

EXPENSIVE PROCEDURE

To check hog grading would be an expensive procedure, it allowed, Hugh Allen, chairman of the Alberta Livestock Co-operative Association, answered. Mr. Allen, who had addressed Thursday morning sittings of the convention on the subject of the new hog bonuses, replied to questions asked during the debate on the hog price resolution. He questioned the practicability of a second checker, to check the government hog graders.

One delegate asked, "If parity prices are set at above $20 for hogs, are we going to be satisfied with the $20 we get under this resolution?"

Another questioned Mr. Allen regarding alleged discrimination against "co-op" hogs at Alberta processing plants, and was told it was non-existent.

The resolution was passed with two delegates voting against it.

HAIL INSURANCE

Also passed at Thursday afternoon sittings of the convention was one urging the provincial government to take immediate steps to implement a co-operative hail insurance scheme, whereby all lands sown to grain would be automatically insured, and one which asks the provincial department of education to alter the Alberta school year, to make summer vacations run from July 15 to Oct. 1.

(Hon. Solon E. Low, minister of education, announced recently he would ask for legislation at the next session of the legislature to fix the summer holiday between those approximate dates.)

ally had been extended to a depth of six miles, official reports said, though earlier accounts had set its inland reach at 12 miles. There still was no mention of its width.

Official reports revealed that among the German prisoners were members of the 29th Panzer Grenadiers—the second armored unit to appear on the Rome front from the Gustav line some 60 miles to the southeast. Units of the Hermann Goering Panzer division already had been in action south of Rome.

NAZIS YIELD IN SOUTH

The second strong German counter-attack against the rim of the steadily expanding beachhead was made Wednesday against British forces striking up the road from Anzio toward Albano on the hills just outside Rome. Albano is 13 miles southeast of Rome and 20 north of Anzio.

On the main Fifth Army front American troops, apparently across the Rapido river in force, fought fiercely against the slowly yielding Gustav line positions to close a net around Cassino, key-stone of the German defences on the southern front.

Just north of Cassino the United States assault forces advanced in the face of heavy German fire—artillery, mortar and machine-gun—across heavily mined irrigation ditches.

FRENCH MAKE GAINS

On their right, Gen. Alphonse Juin's French troops hammered out limited gains. They were locked in bloody battles on the Belvedere mountain feature north and slightly west of Cassino.

It appeared that the American-French drive was sweeping around to the north to flank Cassino, which a commentator said is "strongly defended."

New Ministers Will Be Named To Three Posts

partments will be that of reconstruction, and there is much speculation as to who will head it. One view is that Munitions Minister Howe will be chosen. Those who support that view insist that after the war his department will gradually melt out of the picture and that Mr. Howe is too valuable a member of the government to be left in charge of a dying department.

On the other hand, many contend that J. G. Turgeon (Lib. Cariboo) will get the post. Mr. Turgeon, it is generally conceded, has been a decided success as chairman of the Commons reconstruction committee.

Some time ago there was considerable speculation in Ottawa that Pensions Minister Mackenzie was anxious to retire. But Mr. Mackenzie repudiated this suggestion and it now seems probable he will head the department of veterans' affairs. However, it is generally agreed that if Mr. Mackenzie does not want it, Hon. Cyrus MacMillan (Lib. Queens) would likely be Prime Minister Mackenzie King's choice.

SPECULATORS CONFUSED

The head of the department of social welfare confuses the speculators. If Mr. King feels that it should be headed by a medical doctor, Dr. J. J. McCann (Lib. Renfrew South) might be selected; but many think Brooke Claxton (Lib. Montreal St. Lawrence-St. George), parliamentary assistant to the Prime Minister, has been groomed for this job.

5,000,000 Americans Will Go Overseas

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(AP)—

The United States army expects to have about 5,000,000 men, or two-thirds of its forces, overseas by the end of this year and as a result will shut down many of its camps and stations in the continental United States, War Secretary Henry Stimson disclosed yesterday at a news conference.

The contemplated total of forces overseas by the year's end compares with about 2,500,000 at present and a total of 2,086,000 in the American expeditionary force of the First Great War.

(The figure of 2,500,000 now overseas is army forces alone. In an address last Dec. 24, President Roosevelt said that the total overseas in all the armed forces—army, navy and marine corps—was 3,800,000 and predicted it would rise to 5,000,000 by next July.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(AP)—

William T. Dewart, 68, president of the New York Sun, died at his home here last night after a long illness.

Dewart was born a Fenelon Falls, Ont., and came to the United States in 1881. He attended the University of Rochester and in 1937 received a doctor of letters degree from Union College, Schenectady, N.Y.

Dewart received the Chevalier Legion of Honor from France in 1938, the Commander of the Order of the White Rose of Finland in 1934 and the Commendatore Order of the Crown of Italy in 1935.

Changes Urged In Dominion's Tax Structure

Mackenzie King some time ago and is believed already to have influenced the government's legislative program as announced yesterday in the speech from the throne.

Heading the committee was Dr. F. Cyril James, principal of McGill University, Montreal.

POST-WAR EFFECT

The most marked feature of the impact of war on Canadian economy, the committee found, is the increase in productive capacity. This would have a profound effect after the war since Canada would be equipped to produce more than before.

VAST SPENDING POWER

Against this productive capacity would be a vast accumulation of spending power and delayed demand for new goods.

"All of the evidence available at the present time suggests a tremendous spending spree and a serious danger of post-war inflation if rapid adjustments are not made to changing circumstances by governments and private enterprise," said the report.

If the danger of inflation can be avoided, the committee said, the accumulation of purchasing power will create a demand for goods which will aid the government in executing its reconstruction program and permit private industry to assume a large share of responsibility in providing employment.

SUMMARY OF OBJECTIVES

A summary of the objectives expressed by the committee for the post-war period follows:

1. Provision of peacetime employment for all men able and willing to work;

2. Production of goods and services adequate to demand;

3. A social security program to protect those unable to work or to obtain employment and ensure adequate nutrition and educational opportunities for children;

4. A minimum of delay in restoring free functioning of markets, domestic and foreign;

5. Modification of monetary policy, price control and rationing from time to time to prevent particular segments of the economy from developing inflationary conditions.

STRESS INDUSTRY'S ROLE

The role of private enterprise in the post-war period was stressed, but the committee found that the government should make known its policies as soon as possible and recommended that every private enterprise be encouraged to develop a long-range program of capital expenditure.

A study of the extent to which existing financial machinery meets the needs of small business for capital funds was recommended.

The report said private enterprise must recognize more than before the stake of labor in the national economy.

Annual income rather than hourly or weekly wage rates should be stressed and more consideration should be given to profit sharing, holidays with pay and pensions. Labor-management committees were important but should not interfere with organized labor nor the right of workers to choose their bargaining agency.

The committee warned against an attempt by labor to maintain for all workers the highest wages received by some workers during the war. It said organized labor must take a share in responsibility for attaining full employment at reasonable wages and, while some wages might increase, it was also possible some present rates would prove too high.

Jap Atrocities Are Revealed By Britain, U.S.

286 are officially assumed to be killed in action or missing and the rest taken prisoners.

Among the cases of brutality cited by Eden were these:

In Burma—Indian soldiers roped together were bayoneted from behind.

In the Philippines—Three British civilian internees who attempted to escape were flogged and shot.

In Shanghai—an officer of the Municipal Police was tortured until he was "practically out of his mind." He died a day or two later.

In Thailand—prisoners were reduced to "ragged skeletons" while being forced to work on railways under tropical jungle conditions without adequate food, clothing shelter or medical care.

At sea—800 prisoners were left under sealed hatches and drowned after an Allied submarine torpedoed the Lisbon Maru Nov. 1, 1942.

HONG KONG CONDITIONS BAD

Eden estimated that deaths among British and Indian war prisoners in Thailand alone ran into the thousands with the health of all survivors deteriorating rapidly in the jungle camps.

Conditions in the Hong Kong area, where many Canadians are among the British Commonwealth prisoners, were growing worse, Eden said.

Latest information reaching the government indicated that the great majority of British empire prisoners in Japanese hands were being forced to live under much different conditions than those related in postcards and letters.

Some recent communications from the prisoners were "in terms dictated by the Japanese authorities," Eden said in giving commons what he said was "grave news about the treatment of British prisoners of war and interned civilians in Japanese hands."

The prisoners included those from the "British Commonwealth and India," he said.

WITHHOLD INFORMATION

Between 80 and 90 per cent of the total prisoners and internees held by Japan were confined in the Philippines, Netherlands East Indies, Borneo, Malaya, Thailand or Indo-China, Eden said.

"The Japanese government hitherto has withheld permission for neutral inspection of any camps in question," he said. "We have not been allowed to know the number of prisoners, nor have their names been indicated to us."

Eden warned the Japanese to reflect that "in the time to come the record of their military authorities in this war will not be forgotten."

"It is with the deepest regret that I am obliged to make such a statement to the house," he said, but after consulting with our allies who equally are victims of this unspeakable savagery, the government felt it their duty to make public the facts."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The Japanese, through starvation, torture and outright murder, have slain more than 7,700 American fighting men—at least a third of the number taken prisoner in the Philippines—the army and navy revealed today in a report of unparalleled bestiality which brought pledges of vengeance from an outraged congress.

The story, carefully documented with instance after instance of Japanese barbarity against Filipino as well as American troops, was based on sworn statements by two army officers and a navy officer who themselves suffered for 361 days at the hands of the enemy before they escaped from a prison camp on Davao.

Ignoring all accepted rules for treatment of war prisoners, the Japanese heaped upon the captured Americans a treatment so horrible that the three officers said the heroes of Bataan and Corregidor never would have surrendered "had they known the fate in store for them."

CONGRESS IN RAGE

Congress heard the story in open rage. Chairman Sol Bloom, D., N.Y., of the house foreign affairs committee, summed up the sentiments of most of his colleagues: "Let these Japanese know in plain and uncertain terms that we're going to hold them responsible for this nasty, damnable, despicable business. We'll hold the rats—from the emperor down to the lowest ditch digger—responsible for 1,000,000 years of necessary."

The report added a new and ugly chapter to the story of Japanese atrocity that was made so clear when the Tokyo government, again in complete violation of accepted rules of war, executed some of the captured American fliers who took

House Leader

JOHN BLACKMORE

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—(CP)—John Blackmore has been re-elected as house leader of the Social Credit group of 10 members in the House of Commons for the new session which opened yesterday. Mr. Blackmore represents Lethbridge in the chamber. Others of the group re-elected to the positions they held last session are: Deputy leader, E. G. Hansell, Macleod; whip, C. E. Johnston, Bow River; chairman of the caucus, Victor Quelch, Acadia, and secretary, F. D. Shaw, Red Deer.

part in the April, 1942 raids on

Tokyo and other Japanese cities. The report disclosed these facts:

At Camp O'Donnell, about 2,200 Americans from Bataan died during April and May of 1942. The death rate among Filipino prisoners was higher. By October, another 3,000 Americans had died at Camp Cabanatuan and 2,500 others were in such condition that American doctors were certain all would die.

For a full week after American defenders of Corregidor had surrendered, they were denied food. Then they received meagre portions of rice and sardines.

Many technical men—at least 400 and possibly 1,000 others—were shipped off to Japan for slave labor in factories in complete defiance of the Geneva convention on prisoner treatment to which Japan claims she is abiding.

At least three Americans and three Filipinos were buried alive. Others were beheaded.

GIVEN SUN-TREATMENT

Many were given the sun-treatment, a form of torture in which they were forced to remain under the blistering sun with no covering.

A nightmarish memory to the men who escaped was what the prisoners called the "march of death." With no food, water or shelter from the sun, they were forced to make a 12-day march for 85 miles to work in labor battalions.

Those who fell screaming in agony of approaching death were beaten with sticks, whipped or shot if they dared ask for food or water. Some were run over by Japanese trucks—deliberately.

Men who once weighed 200 pounds shrank to 90, became human skeletons, and died by the hundreds. Diarrhoea and dysentery almost were universal, as was beri-beri.

Those who survived the bestiality were herded like cattle into small enclosures which reeked with the stench from the decaying bodies of men whom they once knew.

CONTRAST FROM REPORT

In contrast to the staggering death toll described by the three officers, the Japanese have reported only 1,555 Americans as having died from disease in the camps in the Philippines.

The army and navy made it clear that nothing in the report was hearsay—that it contained

Great Hordes Of Nazi Troops Flee in Panic

By HARRISON SALISBURY

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin Copyright, 1944, by British United Press

MOSCOW, Jan. 28.—Tens of thousands of Germans were reported fleeing for their lives toward Estonia and Latvia today in a frantic effort to escape converging Soviet armies that already have cut or were threatening all their major railway life-lines.

Red Army spearheads clashing into the northern and southern flanks of the shrinking German salient below Leningrad severed the Leningrad-Tallinn escape railroad within 39 miles of the Estonian border, and 80 miles to the south-east, drove to within striking distance of the only two other lines out of the Nazi bulge.

Official reports told of German units retreating in disorder, abandoning large quantities of arms and ammunition. In some sectors, prisoners were rounded up in wholesale lots as Soviet shock troops drove deep into the enemy rear and cut off paths of retreat.

Gen. Leonid A. Govorov's vanguards, outracing German units seeking to board trains for escape to the west, swept 25 miles from Krasnogvardeisk along the Leningrad-Tallinn railway to capture the junction town of Volosovo, 39 miles east of Estonia.

to a person who has reached that age," a delegate commented, during passage of the resolution.

The finance resolution was urged in order that the Dominion "would not be obliged to listen to orders from the banks or loan companies." It read as follows:

"Whereas the federal government gave all control of currency to financial institutions such as banks and loan companies, and in turn borrows money from these banks every time the government needs money to operate, and in so doing, this government has to listen to them;

"Therefore be it resolved that this convention do on record demanding the Dominion government take control of all finance in Canada, so that it would not be obliged to listen to orders from the banks or loan companies."

PLAN FOR PEOPLE

George Bevington, Winterburn, in support of the resolution, said, "We want a financial institution for the people and not for a privileged few. If there had been such an institution, there would not have been all the farmers in debt that there are now."

A third resolution passed asked the Dominion to lift the embargo on delivery of sows to packing plants, and also that the embargo be removed on the export of heavy hogs and sows to the United States. This was moved by R. H. Hawley, Nampa.

Much discussion took place Thursday before a resolution was tabled which asked that the farmers' union request farm organizations and cooperatives, such as the dairy pools, wheat pools, United Grain Growers, and the United Farmers of Alberta, to sponsor a drive in Canada to unite farmers into one solid block and when over 51 per cent has been attained, demand the compulsory membership of all farmers. It was suggested that the Federation of Agriculture sponsor such a move.

a few minutes, anyway," he said. "I couldn't feel nothing, so just let it go."

Stack reiterated that he had not known a man was inside the car—not until the police lifted him out; he did not know it was Jevne up to that time, he added.

Asked if he had not been told by Irene that there was a man in the auto, Stack replied that she had mentioned something about it and that was why he felt around when he returned from phoning the police.

"Didn't you think it a good idea to go back and get him out?"

AFFECTED BY SMOKE

"Another man was there at the time. All the responsibility is being put onto me," replied Stack. "At the first dose of smoke I almost keeled over myself."

Asked if he had any idea how the fire started, the witness replied: "How should I know how it started? A cigarette, perhaps, or a short circuit."

"How could a man sit where the seat had been burned and not get burned?"

"Somebody else might have killed that man, that's the way it looks to me," replied Stack, who suggested that Jevne may have been on another party.

Irene Thomas, next witness to be called, was given the protection of the Canada Evidence Act, at the request of her solicitor, William G. K. Bloor.

TELLS OF MEETING

The woman told of being introduced to Jevne, by Stack, at a cafe, about 11 p.m. Jan. 13. The three left the cafe and went to a hotel, where Jevne had said he had a bottle of liquor. After getting the liquor from Jevne's room, the three drove, in his car, to "Bill's" place on 97 street, arriving there about 11:30.

The witness was not certain of the time they left the 97 street address, but thought it was after midnight. They "just drove around," continued the woman, saying that Jevne drove all the while.

"How drunk were you?" she was asked.

"I wasn't drunk at all," she replied, as she told of the driver starting and stopping the auto—"six or seven times."

"Would you say Stack was intoxicated?"

The witness thought he would have been.

"Was Ray (Jevne)?"

"Yes."

The witness said she had left the car at some garage, after Jevne had almost hit a couple of cars, and nearly into the ditch a couple of times.

CAUTIONED DRIVER

"For goodness sake, be careful," she said she told the driver.

After Jevne had driven away from the garage, a taxi had been ordered, continued Irene, who said that she next saw Jevne when she discovered him in the car on 97 street close to "Bill's" (William Gargantini), but on the opposite side of the street.

When they got their taxi, continued the witness, she and Stack went to a cafe "to eat," but they didn't stay as there was an argument.

They had three taxis that night, she said, and Stack paid for them all. She said she thought it was up to him to pay for them, and denied taking money from his pocket to pay a fare; she did not recall telling the driver on one trip to "keep the change."

Stack got some "good whiskey" on 99 street, she continued—"a big bottle with only three inches in it." They drank this at Bill's.

Leaving there, she and Stack started to walk, when the auto was observed. Thinking it was a taxi, with the dome light on, they went over to it. When the door was opened smoke poured out of the vehicle.

"I said, 'the car's burning,' but saw no one in it till the smoke cleared away," said the witness.

"Why didn't you do something about it?"

"LOOKED DEAD TO ME"

"He looked dead to me," replied Irene, who told of the occupant's eyes being closed, while he was slumped over, towards the right-hand door. There was no one in the driver's seat, she added.

Some attachment on the dashboard was glowing red, and buzzing, she continued, adding that she had noticed this earlier in the evening while riding in the auto she now knew to be Jevne's.

"I couldn't hear him breathing; his face was very pale; he was awful limp, and slumped over to the right-hand side of the car," she said.

"Didn't you think about pulling him out?"

"I didn't think I was supposed to."

"What did Stack say when you told him Jevne was in the car?" Was he surprised?"

"I don't know. He said he had already put in an alarm."

"And left Ray in the car?"

"The car was not burning."

"Did Charley make any effort to get Jevne out of the car?"

The witness said she saw him put his hand inside the car; she didn't know who was in the car herself, at first, but after the smoke had cleared she saw it was Jevne, and told Charley.

"He looked and said, 'Yes, that is Jevne,'" she stated.

RELEASED FROM JAIL

Irene told the jury that she had been discharged from Fort Saskatchewan on Wednesday, the 12th, arriving in Edmonton about 11:30 a.m., and had $4 on her.

"Did you have any more than $4 between Jan. 12 and Jan. 14?"

"Yes; $50. I got it from a man named Stanley. I don't know his last name."

The witness stated that she had received $5 from Stack while she was still in jail; she got another $3 and some shoes he bought for her on the Wednesday. That night, she said, she was handed the $50 bill by Stanley. She got no money from anyone else.

"Who is this man Stanley?"

"I don't know."

"Did you get the $50-bill changed?"

"Yes; at the Black and White taxi. I spent it on clothes—a dress and other personal things."

"There was only one $50-bill in the taxi office?" she was asked.

"Yes."

"That is not what we have been told," was the rejoinder.

The witness said after leaving the scene with Stack, they walked to a cafe and had coffee, after which she ordered a taxi and drove to the home of a man with whom she was staying. She could not remember the address, she said, but she knew the house.

CONSTABLE TESTIFIES

Constable Kenneth Shaw told of going to the scene, accompanied by Constable L. B. Nicholson. Stack and Irene were standing there, he said.

He opened the door, which was closed tightly, upon being told by Irene that "there was a man in there" and the occupant fell into his arms.

Laying the man on the sidewalk, they found the overcoat burning, and pulled it and the jacket beneath off.

Constable Nicholson started artificial respiration, and then the fire department arrived; a call was sent in for a respirator, continued Constable Shaw, adding that another call was sent for a doctor.

Jevne was placed in an ambulance which arrived and was taken to the hospital where artificial respiration was continued, said the witness.

There were no flames in the car, and both car doors were tightly shut, he said. The light on the dashboard, he explained, was the heater switch.

Nothing was said by Stack or Irene as to who the man was, continued the witness. They gave the police no help; they made no comment about it.

Dr. E. A. Braithwaite, chief provincial coroner, presided, while C. G. Purvis, K.C., conducted the inquiry.

The jury was composed of J. W. Parks, foreman; Robert J. Talbot, F. LeGassick, A. Wheatstone, F. Taylor and John Hay.

USE THOSE BREADCRUMBS

When food is so urgently needed by our fighting men, when millions are starving in Europe and elsewhere, every scrap of food must be put to the best possible use. Of course, no one wastes food intentionally, but unthinkingly these wastes do occur. Let us be careful to save everything, even down to the lowly bread-crums. Here's a useful recipe you should try:

SPICED APPLE PUDDING

3 cups bread crumbs; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/4 cup raisins; 2 tablespoons rich fruit juice; 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves; 3 cups chopped apples; 2 cups milk; 1/4 cup mixed peel; 1 teaspoon mace; 2 eggs (beaten separately); 1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Soak the milk, stir in the crumbs and scald for 2 minutes. Remove from fire, mix together all the ingredients, adding lastly the whites of eggs beaten stiff. Grease pudding dish, fill with the batter and bake for about 40 minutes in a moderate oven. See that it browns evenly. Serve with custard sauce.

Food Fights for Freedom! Observe these TEN FOOD-SAVING RULES For Wartime

- PLAN FOOD BUYING CAREFULLY
Buy only the foods you know your family will eat. Calculate quantities so that there are no left-overs.
- PLANT A VICTORY GARDEN
Help to increase Canada's food production by growing your own vegetables and fruits. Raise chickens and any other stock you can.
- AVOID WASTE IN PREPARING
Measure all ingredients. Watch vegetable and fruit peels—peel them thin. Cook potatoes in skins.
- COOK FOODS PROPERLY
Follow your cook book carefully as to avoid waste and retain maximum food values.
- SERVE SMALLER PORTIONS
Start a Clean Plate Club in your home! Don't waste second helpings—let them ask for more.
- SAVE LEFT-OVERS
When you do cook too much, save meat and vegetable remnants for stews, soups, bread-crums for stuffings.
- SAVE SURPLUS FATS
Use what you need in your own cooking. What's left over turn in with your other savings.
- DO NOT HOARD
Canada has a sufficiency of all the foods you need. Don't hoard or buy foods for the sake of using up your ration stamps.
- ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO SAVE
Share with your friends any food saving tips you hear or read. Don't spread gossip about "right-left-right" or "left-right-left" that may start rumors on unrationed foods.
- REDUCE YOUR FOOD BILL
Choose economical foods—those with concentrated nutrients. Try to keep down and reduce your total food bill.
- CONTRIBUTE TO SUPPORT OF CANADA'S NUTRITION AND FOOD CONSERVATION PROGRAMS BY B. C. SUGAR REFINING COMPANY LIMITED.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

WARREN TAULBEE, of the U.S. Station Hospital cage quintet who last night equalled the scoring mark of 28 points set up by John Gullekson of the Engineers on Dec. 2, has been playing consistently good basketball ever since his team's opening game against the Yanks on Nov. 9.

The tall San Franciscan has appeared in six of Hospital's eight fixtures in the Men's Basketball League and his 28 Thursday night over at Garneau gym lifted him into second place in league scoring with a total of 103. Artie Albert, of Quartermasters, with an even 100 is now third. Gullekson's top total of 135 was collected in eight games.

Taulbee hit 21 in his initial circuit performance on Nov. 9 and by a coincidence came up with that identical score next time out, which was Dec. 2 against the Engineers and the night Gullekson made his 28. Taulbee registered 17 against Quartermasters on Dec. 9, but was held to a paltry six points by that same club on Jan. 7. On Jan. 20 playing Varsity he gathered in 10.

The Hospital sharpshooter had a good chance to post up a new mark last night, but the Latter Day Saints "froze" the ball in the closing stages and Taulbee scored only eight points in the final quarter. Phil Lusk was second high for Hospital with 10 points and Leon Jenkins set the pace for the Saints with 14, two more than Bernard Critchfield.

Bechtel, Price, Callahan eagerly aren't being headed off in the new year, one win per week evidently being their motto since the second round began. Bechtels had nothing to show but a flat zero for six straight games prior to Christmas, but they now have won three in a row. Jack Henton, newly acquired player has contributed 16 points in the three games. "Chuck" Saffell continues as top man for the team, collecting 10 last night.

HERE AND THERE... CONTINUING to work out each week as a member of Percy Page's Comets is one of the greatest players in the history of basketball in this city. Noel (MacDonald) Robertson, one of the famous Edmonton Grads has been turning out with the Comets regularly all season.

In last night's practice game against the U.S. Engineers at McDougall gym, all Noel did was to drop in 12 baskets. Scoring 24 points against the men's league leaders is a reasonably good evening's work even if done in a practice session. Other members of the Comets are Etta Dann, Peggy Colville, Margaret Paterson and Francis Gordon—who along with Noel appear to con-

Wheelers Roll Over Currie Soldiers 7-2

Victory Gives First Place To Red Deer

RED DEER, Jan. 28.—(CP)—Red Deer Army Wheelers took over undisputed first place in the Central Alberta Garrison Hockey League Thursday night with a well-earned 7-2 triumph over Calgary A-16 Currie Barracks. The contest was marked by the first penalty shot of the league this season.

The Wheelers, smarting under a 3-1 defeat by Currie at Calgary last Saturday, made no mistake this time. They led 3-0 at the end of the first period, 4-1 at the end of the second and outscored the visitors three to one in the last session.

The game was fast and clean throughout. Wheelers' passing was accurate and allowed them to get in close for most of their goals. Pte. Jim Henry, 23-year-old native of Winnipeg performed in major-league style in the Wheeler net. Ptes. Jack Forsy and Eddie O'Keefe paced the Wheeler attack with two goals each. The penalty shot, scored by Cpl. George Pargeter, came in the third period when the winger was tripped as he sifted through the Currie defence. Wheelers' other goals were scored by Sgt. Mac Colville and Pte. Bud Emery.

Pte. Max Bentley and Cpl. Kenny Stewart netted for Currie.

LINUPS
Calgary: McAnceley, Anderson, Lane, M. Bentley, R. Bentley, Kaleta, Suba, Stewart, Carse, Grant, Desmarais, Klien, Scott.

Red Deer: Henry, Colville, Mullen, O'Keefe, Pargeter, Emery, Suba, Forsy, Stewart, Van Deelen, Lyons, Colquhoun, Ratke, Slovinski.

Officials: J. Anderson, Ed. Battell, Calgary.

SUMMARY
First period: 1—Red Deer, O'Keefe, 2:21; 2—Red Deer, Forsy (Mullen), 12:47; 3—Red Deer, Emery, 13:01. Penalty: R. Bentley.

Third period: 6—Red Deer, Forsy (Slovinski), 11:51; 7—Red Deer, Pargeter (penalty shot), 14:15; 8—Red Deer, O'Keefe, 15:15; 9—Calgary, Stewart (Carse), 17:56. Penalties: None.

E. A. C. Juveniles Defeat Canadians By Score of 4-3

Edmonton Athletic Club took over sole possession of second place in the City Juvenile Hockey League standings by defeating Canadians 4-3 at 119 Street rink on Thursday night.

Bob Manson assisted in three of the winners' goals and scored the fourth himself. Don Cavanagh netted two and Bob Manson one for E.A.C. Don McCombie, Jim McAuley and Bob Jackson were the marksmen for the Canadians.

There was no scoring in the first period and McCombie sent Canadians ahead half-way through the middle period. Cavanagh evened the count on Lane's pass at 15 minutes.

Bob Manson scored right from the faceoff at the beginning of the final period and Cavanagh gave the E.A.C. squad a 3-1 lead a few minutes later. Lane drawing assists on both markers.

Jim McAuley sliced the margin to one with the help of Harry Pelek at 12 minutes, but Lane's goal from Clem Kerr gave E.A.C. a 4-2 lead. Bob Jackson secured the final Canadian counter on a play with Nick Hrynkyk.

LINUPS
Canadians — Kidd, K. Anderson, Hinchberger, Goslin, McCombie, Le-Clair, McAuley, Hrynkyk, D. Anderson, Pelek.

Nanaimo Army Loses to Navy

VANCOUVER, Jan. 28.—(CP)—Stoker Hal Brown scored three goals as Esquimalt Navy beat Nanaimo Army 6-1 in an exhibition hockey game here Thursday night before about 5,000 fans. It was the third consecutive game in which Brown, former Flin Flon forward, has shot three goals.

AB. Bernie Strongman, Leading Postman Porky Hulme and Stoker Joe McArthur got the other Sailor counters. Pte. Pinky Melnyk tallied for Army.

Veterans' Bonspiel Advances

Coote and Hill Rinks Qualify To Clash in Challenge Final

MARKING up three straight wins Thursday after dropping the opening game of the preliminary round last Wednesday, Bill Coote's rink qualified to meet Bert Hill's quartet in the grand challenge this morning of the Veterans' annual bonspiel being played at the Alberta Avenue rink.

Finals in the other events were also set for this morning, with Rev. J. G. Goddard of Leduc playing H. S. Hegler in the secondary. Alf Gregory clashing with Fred Christman in the tertiary. W. G. Walford and Ab. Clutterham meeting for third and fourth in the challenge. W. C. Townsley taking on W. H. Croft for third and fourth in the secondary and George Carter and Jack Gagnon battling for third and fourth prizes of the tertiary.

Hill and Coote led the points parade with six each while Goddard, Hegler and Gregory finished with five each. Walford, Clutterham and Christman with four apiece. Townsley with three and Gagnon, Carter and Croft with two each. Where ties resulted they were decided by one member of the tying rinks playing two ends.

In the case where Goddard, Hegler and Gregory had to break a tie, Goddard beat Hegler and then Hegler defeated Gregory, but the latter two had to play four ends before Hegler ousted Gregory from the secondary final.

The Goddard rink scored one of the biggest ends of the day, a five ender on the sixth while they were defeating Clutterham of Tofield, 11-9 in the 3 p.m. draw. Probably the closest match was played between Hill and Hegler, also on the final draw of the preliminary round. They were both battling to enter the grand challenge and were tied 7-7 on the ninth of a 10 end game, but Hill counted one and took the game. The veteran curlers enjoyed the best of ice throughout the day.

Following are the results of the four-game preliminary round:

THURSDAY
9 a.m. Draw: Goddard 10, Walford 10; Croft 7, Christman 8; Hill 7, Coote 11; Gagnon 8, Clutterham 11; Carter 12, Gregory 8; Hegler 10, Townsley 8.
12:30 Draw: Gregory 14, Croft 8; Hegler 1, Clutterham 3; Gagnon 9, Christman 5; Goddard 2, Coote 11; Hill 10, Townsley 6; Carter 8, Walford 15.
3 p.m. Draw: Carter 12, Gagnon 8; Croft 12, Goddard 11; Clutterham 9, Hill 8; Hegler 7, Gregory 10; Walford 7, Townsley 12; Christman 7.
Results of Wednesday, Jan. 19:
Townsley 9, Walford 9; Gregory 8, Hegler 8; Carter 6, Goddard 8; Gagnon 8, Hill 6; Clutterham 11, Croft 9; Christman 8, Coote 4.

Leaf Juveniles Beat South Side In Close Game

Maple Leafs continued to advance in the race for premier honors in the City Juvenile Hockey league by squeezing out a 3-2 win over South Side at 96 street rink on Thursday night.

Mike Thomas netted from Jack Klecko to give the league leaders a good edge half way through the first period and Bud McPherson made the count 2-0 on Don Christian's relay in the second session.

Don Robertson combined with Dave Ellis early in the third period for South Side's first goal, but Delmar Wagner with "Chuck" Wallis lifted the figures to 3-1 for Leafs.

Robertson came back with another for South Side on a three-way effort with Ellis and Taylor, with five minutes to go, but the Leaf defence held for the balance of the game.

LINUPS
South Side: Strachan, Ellis, Elger, Thompson, Robertson, Taylor, Stollery, Lapping, Christenson, Hall, McKenzie, Nuttall.
Maple Leafs: Letain, Jonas, Findlay, Harvie, Heron, McPherson, Thomas, Christian, King, Wallis, Wagner, McCargar, Klecko.

Referee: Harold Wismer.

SUMMARY
First Period: 1, Maple Leafs, Thomas (Klecko), 10.
Second Period: 2, Maple Leafs, McPherson (Christian), 2.
Third Period: 3, South Side, Robertson (Ellis), 3; 4, Maple Leafs, Wagner (Wallis), 5; 5, South Side, Robertson (Ellis, Taylor), 15.

Saskatoon Navy Wins 11 Straight

SASKATOON, Jan. 28.—(CP)—Saskatoon H.M.C.S. Unicorn ran their consecutive string of hockey victories to 11 here Thursday night, defeating Moose Jaw Victories by a score of 10-3 in a Saskatchewan Senior League game.

It took the Navy lads a long time to get "hot," for the Moose Jaw boys, augmented by three members of the Saskatoon Lions Juniors, to hold the count to 1-1 until 15 minutes of the second period had elapsed. Then the Navy ran in four goals before the end of the period to make it 5-1. Saskatoon scored five goals in the third period, while Moose Jaw counted twice.

Vic Myles scored two of Moose Jaw's three goals. Storey, one of the Saskatoon Juniors, got the other. OS. Keith Allen, OS. Tony Leswick, OS. Gerry Coulter, OS. Bud Weaver, each got two for Saskatoon, with OS. Clayton Lavall and OS. Brenner getting the others.

Taulbee Equals Scoring Mark As Hospital Trims L. D. S.

LED by Warren Taulbee who scored 28 points to equal John Gullekson's individual league record, U.S. Station Hospital handed Latter Day Saints a 52-37 trimming in the Edmonton Men's Basketball League "A" section game at Garneau Thursday night. Bechtel, Price, Callahan edged-out Y.M.C.A. 34-33 in the "B" division curtain raiser.

Taulbee equalled the mark by counting eight in each of the first, third and fourth quarters and four in the second of one of the cleanest contests of the year. Gullekson was the first hooper to make 28 points in a single game this season, that being when the Engineers' defeated Hospital on Dec. 2.

The first half of the encounter lacked spark and play was carried out in a slow manner, but the Saints made a desperate effort to keep Taulbee from breaking the record in the last session and the fixture was considerably livelier in that canto.

Taulbee dropped in his 28th point with only one minute and 45 seconds to go and made two other shots on the basket after that, but was unable to sink either of them.

Taulbee opened the counting with a field goal and followed with another a short time afterwards, but Bernard Critchfield duplicated Taulbee's early effort to tie it up at 4-4. Taulbee dropped in another two pointer, Jenkins deadlocked the score again and then Morrison Keifer put Hospital ahead 8-8 and the Americans were never headed. They held the two point lead throughout the remainder of the session and were out in front 12-10 at quarter time.

The winners almost completely overwhelmed the Saints in the second stanza by chalking up seven field goals for 14 points before they allowed Leon Jenkins to drop in one, and were ahead 26-16 when the half was reached.

With Taulbee getting four field baskets and Leonard Woodring scoring a free shot, the Hospital squad out-scored the losers 9-7 in the third canto to increase their margin to 32-23 at three-quarter time. The U.S. club then added 16, with Taulbee, Keifer, Magula and Woodring doing the counting, while the losers marked up 14 tally by Critchfield, Dee Elefthery and Unopolis.

Y.M.C.A. HOOPSTERS ARE BEATEN 34-33

Bechtel, Price, Callahan marked up their third straight victory in "B" section of the Edmonton Men's Basketball League last night when they held off a final drive by Y.M.C.A. to win 34-33.

With "Chuck" Saffell tallying 10 points, every member of the winning team entered the scoring with the other counters going to Gene Lepori with eight, Paul Kirk and Jack Kenton with six and "Has" Bell with four. Bob Mitchell with 10 markers paced the Y. club.

Play was very close with Y.M. out-shooting the B.P.C. squad 69-68 and the winners only making 16 as compared with 15 by the losers.

Y.M.C.A. took a 9-5 lead in the opening frame, but Bechtel, Price, Callahan came back in the second to add 14 to the losers' four and gain a 19-13 edge a the half way mark.

They were never behind after that as they out-counted their rivals 11-9 in the third quarter and managed to stay ahead although the Y. team put on a final drive which brought them within one point of tying the score.

Typhoons Tied With Hornets Aircraft Loop

Two assembly floor teams, Sid Alton's Hornets, and Basil Stewart's Typhoons are tied for top spot in Aircraft Repair's 7-team hockey loop as a result of games played Thursday. Deadlocked for second place are Hoover Machine Shop, Kinasevich's Administrators and Jim Moore's Livewires. Winners to date are Engine Shop Cheetahs and Sheet Metal Bruisers.

Eddie Williams' net-minding for the Bruisers wasn't good enough to stop Motyke getting two goals and Northcott one to give the Typhoons the long end of a 3-0 count in a "night shift" contest played Thursday noon at the A.R.L. rink.

Jim Moore picked up two markers to lead his No. 1 plant Livewires to a 3-1 verdict over the Administrators in a "day-force shift" game played Thursday afternoon at the same A.R.L. rink. Warawa got two and the other Livewire tally, while Boyer snared the Administrators' singleton.

Mel Robertson and his Hoover Machine boys got their opening 8-2 score over Livewires Tuesday evening reversed Thursday night at Seena Centre rink when the Alton Hornets crew took over command. Art Soley bagged four goals while teammates Cec Patry got two, and Alton himself and Alf Fedick one each. Scorers for Hoover were Hanson and Worth.

Next games in the warworker league take place Sunday noon at the A.R.L. rink when Typhoons meet Livewires at 11 a.m., followed by Bruisers and Cheetahs at 12:30 p.m.

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1944, by British United Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—From the Halls of the Stork Club to the Shor's of Toots' Tavern, Metropolitan sports writers tossed anchors and a lot of other things away last night as they welcomed home dangerous Dick McCann, the living proof that the U.S. Navy makes no mistakes in its selection of men.

McCann, who had been handing out lavish fees to a metropolitan physician for treatment for diabetes for nine months before the Navy pronounced him physically perfect at induction, showed up in alcoholic alley with a G.I. haircut and a sea-going outfit of navy dress blues.

McCann, recent sports writer of the New York Daily News, amazed his former gunner-mates of the thundering typewriter by appearing in the flesh. They had counted him a heel in the boot training at Sampson Naval Training Station, who would be quickly crushed. Not because of Dick's character or personality—but because of his undertaker's-delight physique—packing 166 pounds of blubber on a short chassis.

NAVY SAID OKAY

McCann was in such terrible physical condition at 33 that the diabetic doctor was his bosom pal, and wife Mary feared he had not long to last at the sports writers' pace. No one knew better than Dick, on those "mornings after" that he would not be with us long. But the Navy said he was okay.

When Dick's nine-year-old son, Richard, heard that the Navy had accepted his father, he dropped his bowl of breakfast blerries and declared, "Daddy will be a weaker link in our armaments than an overripe sausage; besides he'll look like hell in one of those tight-fitting uniforms."

But McCann astounded everyone last night, not only by appearing in the flesh—without crutches or bandages—after six weeks of boot training at Sampson, but he caused consternation by yelling, "I feel so good that I know now why sailors start fights on Broadway."

FIRST DAY TOUGH

McCann, pared down to 147 pounds of bone and muscle, admitted: "The first day at Sampson's was so tough. I felt like going out and buying Japanese war bonds. But on the second day I was jived out of this feeling by the kid from Brooklyn, with whom I had argued on the first day about whether we were eating powdered eggs. He said we ate powdered eggs. I said we didn't."

"He came to my bunk on the night of the second day and admitted he was wrong. He had just finished breaking 3,000 eggs on K.P. He never wanted to see another egg."

McCann, learned from K.P. duties that "our modern Navy has machines that peel potatoes; but no one ever has invented a machine that will take the eyes out of potatoes. The Navy uses potatoes by the tons—special Navy potatoes—all eyes. If it's an eye for an eye, I should knock off a million Japs before I'm through—after my experiences with Navy potatoes. But I love it."

Bentley Collects 4 Points

Late Goals Give Chihawks 6-4 Win Over N.Y. Rangers

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Chicago Black Hawks broke a third-period 4-4 tie and put across two goals Thursday night to whip the last-place New York Rangers 6-4 before 10,166 spectators in a National League hockey game.

The Rangers, walloped 15-0 in Detroit last Sunday, came back strong for the final period which began with the count 3-2 against them. After Doug Bentley of the Hawks had boosted the score to 4-2, New York rallied with two quick goals and seemed on the march to victory.

Centre, Ab. Demarco and Fern Gauthier tallied the deadlocking goals at 5:57 and 6:26, with Frank Boucher collaborating on each. Shortly after, Bucko McDonald of the Rangers drew a penalty for tripping whereupon the opportunistic Hawks came through with the goal that meant victory.

Billie Mosenko made the shot at 7:24, assisted by Cully Dahlstrom and Bentley. The latter scored two of the Chicagoans' total for the evening; the other goals being notched by Dahlstrom, Clint Smith and George Allen.

Allen put the game away with only 24 seconds remaining, on an assist by Earl Seibert.

The Rangers' scoring was divided among Bryan Hextall, Boucher, DeMarco and Gauthier.

After getting off to a 2-0 lead at the end of the first period and running it to 3-0 shortly after the start of the third, the Hawks were outplayed throughout the second stanza when the Rangers came within one point of a tie on markers by Boucher and Hextall, but the Hawks' third period counter attack produced three goals to New York's two and salted the game away.

Stengel Resigns As Boston Pilot

BOSTON, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Bob Quinn, president of the Boston Braves, announced last night he had received a letter from Casey Stengel notifying him of his resignation as manager of the National League baseball team.

Stengel's letter of resignation, Quinn said, included the statement: "I do not want to embarrass the new group of stockholders who have taken over control of the Braves." A new group of stockholders came into power a week ago by purchasing a majority share of the Braves' stock.

John Quinn, secretary of the Braves club, said Thursday in connection with a successor for Stengel that the matter would wait until after the annual winter meeting of the National League in New York City Feb. 8.

U.S. Air Corps Triumphs 61-20 In Cage Fixture

U.S. Army Air Corps marked up their 11th straight win in the Inter-Service Basketball League Thursday night when they trounced 16th Weather Squadron 61-20 in the No. 3 "M" Depot drill hall.

"Tex" Wheeler paced the Air Corps team with 18 points while Bell and Reagal led the losers with six each. Forrest Hunter with nine counters, Lowell Cornwell and Roy Bunnidy with eight apiece, John Panvini and Ed Mayer with five each, Bill Loy with four and Bill Williams and Lynden Burns were the other marksmen for the Air-men.

The winners took an 8-6 lead in the first quarter and increased it in every other session to win by 41 markers. They were out in front 21-8 at half time by out-scoring the Weather Squadron 13-2 in the second canto and held a 37-16 margin at three-quarter time.

District News in Brief

Red Deer Man Sells Business

RED DEER.—George M. Thompson, well-known business man who has sold his business here after many years, was honored at a banquet held by about 100 farmers and merchants.

The Red Deer Rotary Club reported that the Christmas seal sale in the tuberculosis campaign has brought in a total of $2,439 to date and more money is expected. J. Cuthbertson gave a talk on Robert Burns at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club. Secretary Thomas H. Edis reported receiving $392 from the national finance committee as the club's share of commissions earned in the last Victory Loan campaign. It was decided to turn this over to a number of war charities, and donate $80 to the Rotary International war relief fund.

The Central Alberta Bouspiel will be held at Red Deer on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 22, 23 and 24. Seven sheets of ice will be available under one roof. A large entry from central Alberta is expected.

The R.A.F. Flyers from No. 36 S.F.T.S. Penhold chalked up a 5-2 win over the 78th Battery Juveniles of Red Deer in an exhibition hockey game at the Red Deer arena. It was the third meeting between the teams. The artillerymen have taken the other two.

During 1943 the Red Deer and district home comforts fund accomplished a vast amount of useful work for those in the armed forces. The fund had the support of 17 other organizations in sponsoring dances and received donations from the Red Deer post of the Canadian Legion, and individuals.

Six shipments of parcels totaling 1,581 were sent to service men and women and four shipments of cigarettes which are also sent every month to 21 prisoners-of-war. Satisfactory reports were presented at the annual meeting of St. Luke's Anglican church at which the rector the Rev. George W. Lang presided. A. R. Hobkirk was appointed rector's warden and H. E. Callender, people's warden. Others elected were: A. J. N. Chamberlain, F. Callender, O. L. French, R. Holmes, W. Hayden and F. Harvey.

Scots and their friends of Red Deer and district had an enjoyable time Tuesday night at the Buffalo hotel where they gathered to honor the memory of Robert Burns. Sgt. H. McKinnon of A-20 Canadian Army Service Corps Training Centre, Red Deer gave the address to the immortal memory and the haggis was piped in by Cpl. D. Gray.

Arthur Allen of the staff of the Red Deer high school has been appointed secretary of the Red Deer Board of Trade. He succeeds C. W. Thompson acting secretary since the resignation of Paul Redman last year.

Gleaned From Rural News

BEVERLY.—The town of Beverly annual ratepayers meeting and the Beverly school district annual meeting have been postponed until Feb. 11.

VERMILION.—The Scotsmen of Canadian Legion Post 11 celebrated Burns' night Tuesday in the Legion hall. Vermilion's Credit Union held its annual meeting in the Legion hall Wednesday, and F. Van Wogeningen was named president for the coming year. Reports show a successful year in 1943.

ENDIANG.—The Canadian oil companies and their dealer organizations presented a special showing Tuesday night of a modern oil refinery in operation, and the scientific marvel of sludge and engine varnish being removed quickly without requiring skilled labor or special mechanical equipment. A large crowd attended the showing of this movie.

LLOYDMINSTER.—Election of officers for St. John's Anglican church resulted as follows: Rector's warden, F. W. Byrt; people's warden, Tom Johns; vestry, S. M. Daly, G. T. Dunn, R. C. Messum, W. Street, J. C. Sier, C. Sunderland and J. Swift. A shower was held in the Baptist church parlor in honor of Miss Beatrice Barker who will be married in the near future. "Mat" Alsager, president of the Lloydminster Exhibition Association and George Ross, secretary manager have just returned from the convention of the Western Canada Fairs Association at Winnipeg and announced that the Lloydminster exhibition will be held July 24, 25 and 26 this year.

WILLINGDON.—The local branch of the Alberta Farmers' Union held a successful dance and pie social last week. Marshall Syska was the winner of a wrist watch which was raffled during the evening.

On Sunday last, eight teams of men's and women's broomball players took part in games at the skating rink. Proceeds of the games went to the Red Cross. A meeting of the Willingdon Beekeepers Association was held in the firehall Monday. F. Magera district agriculturist presided. Recent visitors to Edmonton included: Mrs. T. Knipp, Rev. S. Symchych, V. Warshawski.

McLENNAN.—Authority has been received from the government for the incorporation of McLennan as a town. Nominations for the council will be held Feb. 7 and elections on Feb. 10. The local Elks lodge and the ladies of the Order of Royal Purple lodge held a joint installation banquet last week. M. Stehelin was installed as grand exalted ruler and R. Coulman as secretary while Mrs. C. Lawrence is honored royal lady for the O.O.R.P. The hospital aid group held its annual meeting and Mrs. A. Piche was elected president; Mrs. V. Limoges, secretary; Mrs. G. F. Thompson, vice-president. Mrs. P. Jones entered

Born and educated in Lloydminster he has been posted to the transportation command. A brother Patrick, is serving as a R.C.A.F. pilot overseas and a younger brother is training in the air cadets.

Boy Slashes Knee, Nurse Gives Aid

WHITECOURT.—Eleven-year-old Ronnie Cleveland cut his knee with an axe on Saturday, and received treatment from the local district nurse, Miss Laura Attrix. Mrs. Stella Kobachuk suffered two broken ribs as a result of a fall last week.

Tie-loading is expected to commence here next week. Among the loaders will be Fred Gustafson, an old-timer at the task who used to take his share of the big ones before the specifications were changed so that all over-sized ties must be squared. Some fine birch timber is being trucked in from the Pinto Hills area and being loaded on flat cars for shipment. Well drilling operations which have been under way since September of last year at the site of the radio range power plant have been temporarily discontinued. Consideration is being given to the possible use of a near-by spring which has an excellent flow of pure soft water.

The O. Kallbom butcher shop, which has been closed for some time has been rented as an office and store-room by the McKay Company who are erecting the power line of the radio range installation here.

A number of friends at bingo party.

ROSALIND.—Mrs. Storie of Olds is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Riley. The farm's union sponsored the free moving picture show staged in the Rosalind hall. Bawlf defeated Rosalind by a score of 5-4 in a hockey game Sunday. Merrill Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Orr, suffered a slight concussion after being hit by a flying puck in a hockey game.

The annual meeting of St. Elizabeth church here took place last week and officers of the church for 1944 were elected as follows: chairman of board, James H. Schneider; treasurer, W. F. MacDonald; members, Vernon Malone, Patrick O'Donnell, George Weller, John MacDonald. The financial statement for the year 1943 was satisfactory.

TWO HILLS.—The annual meeting of the Red Cross was held in the Two Hills school, and officers elected were: president, George Kulka; vice-president, D. Gelesta; secretary, W. Gogolick; treasurer, S. Petasky, and auditor, P. M. Shavchuk. During the year 1943 the sum of $1,063 was raised by the group.

Mrs. R. Watt, Mrs. L. Castagner, Mrs. S. Yuskow, Mrs. J. Kolisniak and Mrs. N. Solowan were elected for the work committee and A. Kulka, M. Kindrak, T. Arkell, R. Samoil, Miss V. Gorgichuk and Mrs. D. Luciak were named as Red Cross canvassers.

A whist drive sponsored by the Local Ukrainian Women's Institute in aid of the Red Cross was held here Jan. 25. Prize winners were: Mrs. G. Kulka, Mrs. F. Petasky, W. Buk, R. Sigerist and W. Shepitsky. Old timer of this district, William Kolisniak is dead. He is survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters. The Rev. H. Glachana officiated at the funeral service and burial was in the Greek Orthodox church cemetery at Musidora.

Thieves Take Cash From Joffe Store

LACOMBE.—Thieves who broke into the general store operated by Pearson and Small at Joffe, east of Lacombe, stole an undetermined amount of cash. Sgt. R. Mathieson of R.C.M.P. is investigating.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralston Caldwell, residents of Lacombe district since 1908, celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary. Married in the Algoma district of Ontario, they later resided in Fergus before settling in Lacombe. Mr. Caldwell is 88 and Mrs. Caldwell 78 years old.

More than $4,000 was raised by the Lacombe branch of the Red Cross in 1943 it was revealed by reports of the officers given at the annual meeting. In addition 3,190 articles of clothing were completed in the workrooms of the local branch. One of the best individual efforts reported by the officers was that of Mrs. W. J. Kinley of Meadowbrook district who with very little assistance raised over $100 for the group.

Fire Does Damage To Civic Garage

Premises of the civic garage, 96 street and 105A avenue, were damaged in a two-alarm fire which broke out about 5:55 p.m. Thursday. Cause of the blaze, which started in the northeast corner of the building, which was used for storing oils, was undetermined.

Flames were noticed first by Tom Chervinsky, 11543 91 street, an employee of the garage, as they leaped up in the corner of the building. He immediately turned in an alarm.

Arthur May, 14423 Jasper avenue, another employee, said he was working on a truck when he saw the flames.

The two men moved trucks and cars out of the building as rigs from Halls 2 and 5 arrived. Six lines of hose were laid.

Interior of the building was extensively damaged. Tribute to the excellent work done by employees at the civic garage in removing buses, utility trucks and other motor vehicles during the fire that occurred in the building on Thursday night was paid by City Commissioner R. J. Gibb.

He said that the men did an excellent job, and continued to remove vehicles until smoke fumes prevented further work. The damage caused by the fire has not been determined.

Mrs. Angus MacRae Dies: 72 Years Old

Mrs. Angus MacRae, 11155 97 street, resident of Edmonton for 33 years, died Friday night in a city hospital after a brief illness. She was 72 years old.

Born in Knockand, Morayshire, Scotland, Mrs. MacRae joined her husband in Canada in 1911, coming directly to Edmonton. She is survived by her husband, one sister, Mrs. Isobel Grant, Knockand, Scotland, and three children, Mrs. Edward Shore, who arrived from Springfield, Mass., several days ago, Constable Edward MacRae, and Mrs. William Colville. Also surviving are two grandchildren, Edward Shore, Jr., and Judy Colville.

Funeral arrangements are being made by Foster and McGarvey.

"Wee Bit" of a Girl is Praised By Comrades in Post Office

A "wee bit of a girl" with a tremendous personality and capacity to work is what the boys at the Edmonton post office think of AW2, S. A. Adams, of the R.C.A.F. (W.D.).

The post office has lost many valuable men to the military service, but AW2 Adams was the first woman postal employee to enlist. Just getting by the military requirement on height, the "five feet" tall, 18-year-old vivacious Anne Adams liked working at the post office, but she felt she ought to follow the example of her two brothers, both of whom are in the R.C.A.F. overseas.

In any event, she is now with the R.C.A.F. postal branch at Brantford, Ont., and "very happy," according to her sister, Mrs. Mary Gilbert, 10564 116 street.

AW2 Adams is an all around "first" girl. She was the first member of her family to join the postal service, the first woman to be placed on the weighing and rating counter at the post office, and the first woman postal employee to enlist in the military service.

Born in Major, Sask., she returned there from her home in Turner Valley, and applied for a position at the Major post office.

With that experience behind her, Miss Adams came to Edmonton to live with her sister and to add to her post office experience. She was with the post office for six months until she left to enter the service last September. The boys at the post office have nothing but praise for the "very smart—right on her toes" girl and are looking forward to her coming back "some day" in the not too distant future.

A-R-O-U-N-D THE TOWN

Neon signs valued at $100 were damaged in the last few days on 105 avenue, police were notified Thursday. Juveniles were believed to be responsible.

Decrees nisi of divorce were granted in supreme court Thursday by Mr. Justice T. M. Tweedie to John Charles Milton from Lillian A. Hodgson Milton, and Cecilia Repka from William Repka.

Annual meeting of the Beverly ratepayers, which was scheduled to take place Friday, has been postponed until Feb. 11. The meeting will be held in the town hall. On Feb. 7 nomination of Beverly school trustees will be held and the election to fill two vacancies on the board on Feb. 14.

Guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Lions club at the Macdonald Thursday noon was Dr. K. A. Clark, of the mining and engineering department of the University of Alberta. Speaking on the present status of bituminous sand development, Dr. Clark showed the basis for the renewed interest in this field.

A 16-year-old boy was under arrest Friday, after admitting that he had stolen a carton of cough drops and 10 bottles of coca cola from two different shops. The articles were in his possession when police investigated a complaint from a merchant at 114 avenue and 95 street, Thursday evening. The goods were returned to their respective owners.

The Optimist club held its regular Thursday meeting at the Macdonald Thursday. R. W. Hedley, presently in charge of the Edmonton Museum of Fine Arts and formerly art instructor for the department of education, was the guest speaker. He spoke on the things to look for in judging and enjoying paintings, explaining the different types of artistic forms and expressions.

Dr. George P. Gilmour, chancellor of McMaster University, Hamilton, and member of the University Christian Mission, was the guest speaker at the Rotary club meeting Thursday noon at the Macdonald. Mr. Gilmour spoke on "Attitudes and Platitudes." He was introduced by J. Gordon Butler, one of the past presidents of the Rotary club. Reg. T. Rose, president, was chairman.

Congregation Hears Reports Eastwood Work

The congregation of Eastwood United church held its annual meeting Thursday night, and heard reports on a very successful year in all phases of its work.

P. H. Evans, treasurer, reported that the church had no indebtedness, and that the revenue in 1943 was "greater than previous years," making it possible to pay all bills and still have a small cash balance. It also was pointed out that during the summer of 1943 expenditures had been made for extensive repair work, including the re-painting of the church building.

Other reports disclosed that the Women's Association had raised $562 in 1943, an increase of one hundred dollars over 1942 and that the Women's Missionary group raised more than their allocation and in addition was very active in Red Cross work and hospital work.

Both the baby band, listing 45 members, under the direction of Mrs. E. Colby and the mission band, averaging an attendance of 30 during the year, under the direction of Mrs. A. Mills, reported a "very successful year," as did the girls' junior choir directed by Miss K. Clarke and accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Clarke.

Minister of the church, the Rev. A. R. Schrag, reported a "record year" in the history of the church in the number of baptisms, births and marriages.

The meeting elected Miss K. Clark as superintendent of the senior Sunday school; Miss L. Wary, superintendent of the primary Sunday school and Mrs. Alice Wright, leader of the C.G.I.T. group.

The Rev. W. T. Young addressed the meeting on the work of the church in Alberta.

The junior choir entertained with several musical selections.

Girl Is Charged Theft From Store

A 20-year-old girl who told police she came to Edmonton from Bellis, about four months ago, was placed under arrest and charged with theft, late Thursday afternoon, after being detained in an Edmonton departmental store, where she was found to have in her possession a quantity of goods which she allegedly picked up at several counters.

A jar of cold cream, one bottle of face lotion, a comb, scarf, and two strings of beads were said by police to have been found in her possession.

The girl appeared before Magistrate A. I. Miller, K.C., in city police court Friday morning. Because it was her first offence, she was placed on six months' suspended sentence and her own recognizance of $100.

Canadian Legion Officials Reiterate Japanese Opposition

Incredible cruelties and tortures suffered by British and American prisoners of war and civilian internees at the hands of the Japanese, revealed Friday from official sources, should convince all Canadians that the Japs are people "we just don't want to have around," according to sentiment expressed by officials of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Legion, which has steadfastly opposed entry of Japanese to Edmonton to work as specialists in egg sexing.

One Legion official said: "We are not surprised that the Japanese have acted in this manner toward defenceless prisoners. We have long realized that the Japanese are trained to delight in barbarism. Economically they can never be assimilated in the Canadian nation."

Secretary-Manager W. J. Williams of branch said: "There are some Japanese in Edmonton. The Legion would oppose any and every attempt at mistreatment that irresponsible hotheads might be tempted to perpetrate on these people out of revenge for what has occurred in Japan."

Salvation Army Plans Campaign For Next Month

In accordance with its national program for the early part of 1944, the Salvation Army observed the first step in the "Forward to Victory" campaign at the 102 Street Citadel Thursday night.

Lt.-Col. H. C. Tuttle, Toronto, public relations officer and national campaign director, conducted the first two hours of the special "prayer night" and the rest of evening's service was conducted by Mrs. Rufus Raymer, Capt. Bray, Maj. Edy, Adj. Jackson, Adj. Martin and Brig. Rufus R. Raymer, assisted by other city officers.

Maj. Carswell, of Calgary, was also present at the meeting, which was well attended.

The Edmonton division of the Salvation Army has planned its program for February in line with the "forward to victory" campaign.

MONTH OF PRAYER

As suggested by Salvation Army territorial leader, Commissioner Benjamin Orames, Toronto headquarters, February will be devoted to prayer and action, emphasizing evangelistic work in the home and young people's activities in all branches of the Salvation Army work.

Leading up to Easter Monday, the campaign calls for special attention to "personal witness and preparation for soldieryship in the Salvation Army," during the month of March, and "pre-Easter" activities during the month of April.

Edmonton leaders pointed out that they hope to fulfill the challenge made by Commander Orames that members of the Salvation Army become "Salvation Commando in Action."

Increase in Fees Is Rejected by A.F.U.

A move to raise membership fees in the Alberta Farmers' Union to $1.50 a year for senior members met with rejection Thursday night, when delegates voted down a resolution to boost the present $1 membership.

The $1.50 fee was to split between the provincial office of the A.F.U. and the district board, the provincial office receiving $1, and the board 50 cents.

It was also decided Thursday to prolong the convention until Friday afternoon, instead of winding up business Thursday night. A similar move was made last year, when delegates stayed on an extra half-day to complete its work.

Lutheran Meeting Discusses Program

A meeting of the board of directors which supervises the mission work of the Lutheran Church (Missouri Synod) in the two western provinces concluded its meeting at Concordia College on Friday. In addition to the members of the board of directors the circuit supervisors also were present. There were in attendance the following: The Rev. W. C. Kifert, Leduc, president; the Rev. W. A. Raedeke, Calgary, chairman; the Rev. C. C. Janzow, Vernon, B.C.; the Rev. E. G. Wildgrube, Bruderheim; the Rev. V. Eichenlaub, Lethbridge; the Rev. V. L. Meyer, Edmonton; the Rev. A. Riberdorf, Fruitvale, B.C.; the Rev. W. F. Doelling, Victoria, B.C.; the Rev. A. Appell, Wataskiwin; the Rev. H. Kuring, Beach, Corner; Prof. J. H. Herrellers, Prof. A. H. Schvermann, A. Nickel, D. Appelt, Edmonton; A. Lange, Dawson Creek.

The purpose of the meeting was to review the work the church is doing in Alberta and British Columbia, and to allocate monies to the subsidized parishes for the year 1944. These parishes were granted the sum of $32,000 in order to enable them to carry on their work efficiently during this year.

Three Albertans In Casualty List

Names of three Albertans appear in a casualty list released Friday. Pte. Mike Kelly, a brother of Mrs. Bridget O'Shea of Mayerthorpe, has been killed in action, and Gar. William James Porterfield, son of Mrs. Emmie Porterfield, Spirit River, and Pte. Lyle Alton Kocher, son of Mrs. Mildred Kocher, Clive, are listed as wounded in action.

Gideon Planish

By Sinclair Lewis

XXII
PEONY fervently influenced the Doctor when Mr. H. Sanderson Sanderson-Smith invited him to join the CCCCC in Washington, D.C.

Peony yelled, "Oh, do it! Washington! We'll meet senators and generals and the President, and maybe it'll lead to your finally going into politics—Saaaay! When did our plan to make you a senator get lost in the shuffle?"

On the surface, the Clizkon was so idealistic that it dripped, and this was the department to which Dr. Planish was particularly assigned. In lectures and pamphlets, it should be the best battle cries: "The traditional American right to work unhampered by labor racketeers," and "The menace to fundamental American institutions, by foreign atheism and Jewish international socialism," and "The Founding Fathers' ideals of Free Enterprise, an Economy of Abundance, and Free Competition unchecked by sumptuary laws, so that the Poorest Citizen may have his chance in the race for fame and fortune against the wealthiest corporation or the most aristocratic and highly educated individual," and "The Cross and the Stars and Stripes—or the Assassin's Dagger and the Crossed Hammer and Pickle—WHICH?"

All that Dr. Planish had to do was to take the slogans he had believed in and turn them inside out. He was still in the Ideals and Public Improvement business, even if he had gone over to a competing firm, and his salary was now a comfortable $4,500 a year. They had a thin tall house in Georgetown and they entertained senators—perhaps twice—and he and Peony and Carrie were happy—anyway, Peony was happy—anyway, Peony said the was happy.

The Clizkon's chief operative, Mr. H. Sanderson Sanderson-Smith, was an esthete. If the sort of beefy, Hamilton-Frisby, football-squad, Skull-and-Bones, Meadowbrook-Club millionaires who always intimidated Dr. Planish also despised Sanderson-Smith, in revenge he knew how to make them tremble with his inside news about Jewish, Communist, and Scandinavian-Irish-farmer-labor conspiracies against them, and radicals now known to be manufacturing sub-machine guns in a cellar near St. Sebastian,

North Dakota. He panicked them into giving him funds with which, as he carelessly put it, he would "put Bibles instead of Tommy-guns into the horny hands of these sons of well-to-do!"

The bad luck of the Planishes seemed over. The Doctor had been in the new job only a year when Franklin D. Roosevelt was elected President, and during the experimentation of the New Deal, so alarming to the Better People, who liked to have the objects of their charity grateful and transient, the Clizkon became important as a safeguard against loose spending and the horrid heresy of maintaining that Democracy also included people who did not live in your block.

Years later, in the 1940's, even after America had entered World War II, Dr. Planish was interested to see that, though H. Sanderson Sanderson-Smith himself was in prison on the astounding charge that he was a Nazi agent, other bodies were carrying on the ameliorative work of the Clizkon, with the slogans "The American Way of Life" and "The Sacred Right to Work" and "The Founding Fathers who laid down the principle of Free Competition" still frequently meaning that employers did not care much for union wage scales.

Through all the Planishes' prosperity and social magnitude in Washington, the Doctor had spiritual trouble.

Whenever his former colleagues, Chris Stern and Dr. Kitto and Natalia Hochberg, and Professor Buchwald and George Rioli, all of them Reformers at whom the Clizkon had heaved a paragraph or two, came to Washington, the Doctor felt uncomfortably that they felt uncomfortably that he was no longer a Liberal. He tried to explain to them that, really, he was more of a Liberal than ever; he and Sanderson-Smith were all for Constructive and Enlightened Labor Leadership, and they opposed only the misleaders who made a living out of Labor. They seemed highly unconvinced by him or by the fervors of Sanderson-Smith, for whom they adopted Peony's name of "Sneaky Sandy."

Dr. Planish tried to be jovial about it: "All right—all right! You get me as good a job with some liberal outfit in New York, and I'll leave Sneaky Sandy flat!" He had, he felt proudly, "called their bluff." But he was still disquieted, and he tried to explain it all to Peony, when she came in from a cocktail party to celebrate the anniversary of the repeal of Prohibition.

Points for Parents

Not This

Isolation from the group is the logical punishment for lack of co-operation.

"Now get this, Peony. To be realistic, I must admit that the first purpose of any uplift organization must be to support the executives who give their time and good hard work to it—like a doctor or a preacher. But I do feel that if I make my living out of a movement to strengthen the public morale, then it ought—well, it ought to try and do some strengthening, don't you see?"

"See what?" said Peony. "He went on, thinking aloud. 'And I'm afraid Chris Stern is right. The Clizkon isn't really liberal. Chris is probably just as much of a four-flusher as Sneaky Sandy—just as crazy to get power and publicity—only he's a careerist on the right side, and Sandy is on the wrong side.'"

Peony sniffed. "So what? He's a Liberal, but he's practical." "When was he ever liberal?" "What's the diff? We get our salary, don't we?"

"In the long run, I think that an executive does better if he's known as a Liberal. By 1940, I'll wager there'll be more money—or rather, I mean a more dignified social position—in being associated with anti-Fascism than with Fascism. Besides, I'm an old-time Fighting Liberal, and a man with his battles behind me, he simply can't turn his back on the People, don't you see?"

No, no, it isn't fly-by-night advocates of individualism like Sneaky Sandy that comes out on top eventually; it's proponents of communal discipline, like Col. Charles B. Mar-due, the greatest promoter of widespread prosperity."

"Want a drink?" said Peony. "Of course I want a drink!" said Dr. Planish.

Minute Make-Ups

Lines of fatigue do seem to fade out if you use the magic of rouge! Blend your rouge close up under the eyes, fade it out at the hair line. Brighten the color in the center of the cheeks. Add a little more under the eyes if your mirror tells you. But watch out, not too bright a glow! Add a sheer veil and you'll line up in smartness!

WANTS NEW ALPHABET

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

A mother would not need to be confused about the essential vitamins if she would concentrate on remembering just four of them and the common sources from which they may be had.

Let her think of A in terms of butter and cream and yellow vegetables; B as supplied by whole grain cereals; C in citrus fruits and D in cod liver oil or any of the concentrates.

This gives her something to cling to and show her that when one plans a balanced diet and includes some of each of these one takes care of the vitamins which are most important to the growing child.

Orange juice—or tomato juice—is the fruit chosen oftenest to represent vitamin C in the diet. It becomes an essential element in the baby's diet. The breast-fed baby may have orange juice, but the need for vitamin C is not acute so long as the baby is nursing and gets in his food the "live" element provided by C.

But the tiny baby on an artificial food needs orange juice and though it may be started in teaspoonful amounts diluted with water, it should be increased rapidly to an ounce or two a day. By six months the baby may have four ounces of strained, sweet orange juice with or without water.

If the orange juice is hard to get or economically punitive to the parent, then the strained juice of home-canned or commercially-canned tomatoes may be used. Because tomato juice made for infants is highly seasoned it is less desirable for the young baby than the unseasoned juice of plain tomatoes.

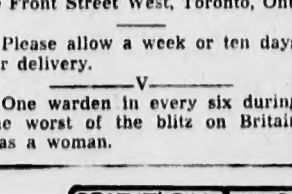

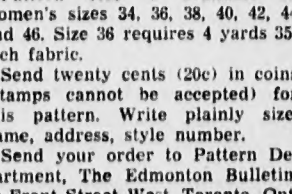

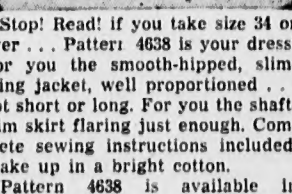

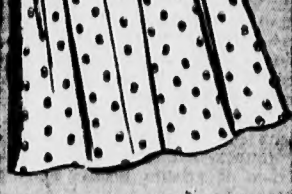

Bring the juice to a boil, boil for 10 minutes (if home canned), strain and put in a clean, sterilized glass jar and keep on ice. Warm when ready to use. Twice as much tomato juice is given as of orange juice.

Some babies do not react well when given orange juice, even though it is well diluted. For such babies ascorbic acid tablets of the usual standard size of 25 milligrams are the first choice. The doctor will order the number needed each day.

Our leaflet, "Diet from Two to Nine Months," suggests the time at which orange juice is most agreeably accepted. It may be had by sending your request for it to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper together with 4-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Being Unmarried Has Its Worthwhile Points

Good Job Is Better Than Bad Husband and Children Who Go Astray; Life Is Freer With No Home Ties

Dear Miss Dix: I am beginning the second half of my life as I am now 39. The first half has not been very satisfactory to me, due mostly to a great lack of self-confidence. This was particularly so in regard to men. I would have liked to have been married, but since I didn't know how to go about luring a man and was too shy to dash ahead and let the mistakes fall where they might, I have had few chances and these were not what I wanted. I have never wanted to be married merely to say I had a husband, and I still feel that way.

So I am now unmarried, with good health and a good job. I have no plan for the future. I do not care for my work, but perhaps it would be foolish to change now. What can I do so that thirty years from now I can feel that it was worthwhile to have lived? I am not a hard-boiled bachelor girl, and I don't want to be a timorous old maid. Can you tell me?

A WOMAN

Answer: I doubt if anyone, except those who are lucky enough to have been endowed by Nature with a complete and inexhaustible supply of self-complacency, can ever look back upon his or her past life and feel that it has been any howling success. The more modest of us see so many mistakes that we have made; we blush for so many foolish and stupid things we have done, and we realize how far we have fallen short of accomplishing all the great things that we were sure we would do before we were middle-aged. And, if we are honest, we know that we are not really necessary to anyone else. We are expendable.

Yours, dear lady, is just the common lot of the ordinary human being. Looking back over your forty years you would find plenty to regret and not much to cheer over, and when you cast an eye into the future that wouldn't look so good to you, either. And there is nothing you could do about it. It is just life.

It seems to me that you are making the mistake that practically all unmarried women make, and that is to think that you would have been supremely happy and contented if you had married, and that a woman's life is a failure unless she has a husband and children. Yet why women should cherish this illusion in the face of the evidence to the contrary, afforded by the experiences of their sisters and their cousins and their aunts, must forever remain one of the eternal mysteries of feminine psychology.

For apparently it never even occurs to any woman that she could possibly make an unfortunate marriage herself. She knows dozens of women who are married to drunkards and philanderers and brutes and bullies and shiftless ne'er-do-wells. She thinks of Sally, who gave up a cushy job in an office to go into a kitchen and slave over a cooking stove and a washub and grow old before her time. She remembers Maud, with a fat pay envelope and pretty clothes and her good times, who has to wheedle even a pair of shoes out of her tightwad husband. She doesn't forget how often she has to pay her married sister's rent and buy clothes for her children.

CHILDREN OFTEN HEARTACHES

And she thinks of the mothers she knows whose children are heartbreaks to her. Of one who waits for the drag of the steps of a drunken son stumbling in at night. Of another whose daughter has bowed her head in shame. Of many others who have to work to support lazy, trifling children. Of others whose children are selfish and hard and cruel to them and who do not treat them as politely as they would even a servant.

But with all the examples of unhappy marriages and ungrateful children that they see about them, it does not shake the faith of the individual woman that her marriage will be made in Heaven and her children little angels. She is absolutely sure that she will marry a man who is the model of all the virtues and charms and that he will be a millionaire and a great lover, to boot, and that her children will be born with golden curls, wearing white dresses and blue ribbons that never get dirty, and with Phi Beta keys in their mouths.

As long as you hold to this theory that your life is a failure because you haven't married, there is nothing you can do about it except to get a husband by hook or crook, and get something to really worry about. But if you want to be realistic about the situation, I should certainly advise you to change your occupation and get into some sort of work that you enjoy doing and that will give you a new-fangled interest.

Interest, for, as Stevenson said long ago, to do the work that we love for its own sake is to be called of Heaven. And apply a little common sense to your case. Reflect that a good job is better than a bad husband; that if you had had children they would have gone and left you by the time you were 40, even if they were good children, and that to be economically independent and to have your own door key are a lot to be thankful for in a world where none of us get everything we desire.

Mrs. S. Haire Heads Society

Mrs. Sanford Haire was re-elected president of the Womodauss Society at the annual banquet held on Tuesday evening in the Corona hotel. The 28th annual meeting was held later.

Reports showed that a great deal of work has been accomplished. Twenty-eight parcels have been sent overseas to men who have no one to remember them. Eighteen parcels were sent to service men and women in Canada. Eight large hampers were sent to underprivileged children at Christmas time. Generous contributions were sent to the Canadian Aid to Russia fund, Greek War Relief fund, British Fire Fighters' Relief fund, Navy League dilly bags, Not Forgotten fund, Protestant Children's Home and flowers and fruit were sent to the Royal Alexandra hospital.

Money was raised during the year by teas and a bazaar, also the raffling of a quilt.

Officers for the new year are: Mrs. Albert Williams, vice-president; Mrs. T. O. Hunt, secretary; Mrs. James Brown, treasurer; Mrs. C. Cornick, Mrs. J. B. Millar and Mrs. C. J. Long, on the executive.

Mrs. Roy Lamberton was presented with a life membership in November.

Wesley Group Plans Tea To Aid Fund

Group 4 of Wesley United church held its first meeting of the new year on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Bonnell, 10333 123 street, with the new president, Mrs. H. Curtis, in the chair.

Plans were made for a tea in aid of the organ fund to be held in April at the home of Mrs. M. D. Mullart, 12201 Jasper avenue. Plans also were made for a market day to be held in the church classrooms early in June.

On behalf of the group Mrs. Curtis made a presentation to Mrs. G. Mills, the retiring president. Mrs. A. E. Moore conducted the devotion.

Mrs. R. Casper Elected Head Trinity Guild

Mrs. Rose Casper has been elected president of the Holy Trinity Sanctuary Guild for the 12th year in succession, it was announced Friday.

Honorary members are Mrs. Winston M. Nainby, wife of the rector, and Mrs. G. G. Reynolds. Mrs. M. F. H. Browne is vice-president, and Mrs. R. S. Evans is secretary-treasurer.

Arrangements are being made to hold a floral tea in the very near future, details to be announced later.

War Kitchen

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Teen-aged youngsters, especially girls, are as keen on gin rummy as the grown-ups. A thoughtful mother will suggest to her daughter that she arrange a gin rummy party for her friends.

A Bavarian cream dessert made with thin cream is an achievement these days. Pretty it up for the party by serving it in paper biscuit tarts which are set in paper doily rims. Make the rims by cutting out the centre of a doily so that the remaining circle will fit snugly around the cup. Set the cup in the rim of doily and then slide the rim up to the top edge of the cup.

SAVARIAN CREAM

One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1/2 cup milk, 1 egg yolk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup thin cream, 1 egg white.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine egg yolk, sugar and salt. Scald milk in double boiler and add to yolk. Return mixture to double boiler and cook to custard consistency. Remove from heat, add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool, add vanilla and cream. Allow to congeal slightly and beat with a rotary egg beater. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white. If desired, the top may be sprinkled with crushed macaroni crumbs, or garnished with maraschino cherries.

FLORIDA PERFECTION SALAD

(Serves 6)

One tablespoon (1 envelope) plain unflavored gelatin, 1 1/4 cups grapefruit juice, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups grapefruit sections, 1/4 cup minced green pepper, 1/4 cup minced cabbage, lettuce, mayonnaise.

Soften gelatin in 1/4 cup grapefruit juice. Heat remaining grapefruit juice, add to gelatin. Stir until dissolved. Add vinegar, sugar and salt. Chill until syrupy. Fold in grapefruit sections, green pepper and cabbage. Pour into mold or in individual molds which have been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce; serve with mayonnaise.

Sunday's Menu

Breakfast: Stewed prunes in orange juice, bread crumb griddle cakes, crisp bacon, syrup, honey or jam, coffee, milk for children.

Dinner: Stewed chicken with dumplings, mashed potatoes, green beans, hot rolls, butter, cabbage and apple salad, Bavarian cream, coffee, milk for children.

Supper: Chicken and tomato soup in cups, soya crackers, Florida perfection salad, buttered toast, oatmeal cookies, coffee, milk for children.

RE-ELECTED HEAD OF LOCAL COUNCIL

Mrs. J. A. Clarke, who was elected president of the Edmonton branch, Local Council of Women, at the annual meeting held Thursday afternoon in the club room of the Y.W.C.A. This will be Mrs. Clarke's second term as president. She was elected by acclamation.

Mrs. J. A. Clarke Re-Elected President Local Council Women

Mrs. J. A. Clarke was elected by acclamation as president of the Local Council of Women, Edmonton branch, at the annual meeting held Thursday afternoon in the club room of the Y.W.C.A. This is her second term as president.

Others elected to office include: vice-presidents, Mrs. J. W. Adair, Mrs. W. E. Stewart, Mrs. W. W. McElnay, Mrs. Grace Knight, and Mrs. D. L. Shortliff; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. C. Wicks; recording secretary, Mrs. J. L. Hollinshead; affiliation secretary, Mrs. E. P. Wellwood; and treasurer, Mrs. T. Taylor.

Conveners of committees for 1944 are: arts and letters, Mrs. C. B. Willis; child welfare, Mrs. W. E. Stewart; cinema and printed matter, Miss C. Burger; citizenship, Mrs. Grace Knight; economics and taxation, Mrs. J. Adair; education, Dr. Geneva Misener; housing and town planning, Mrs. F. K. Hart; laws, Mrs. W. J. Ross; league of nations, Mrs. Murray MacDonald; national standards, Mrs. E. J. Adin; publications and publicity, Mrs. J. C. Wicks; and trades and professions, Mrs. D. Yanda.

Other conveners of committees not named will be elected at the next meeting. Giving her report as treasurer for 1943, Mrs. T. Taylor told the members that the club receipts amounted to $135, including $73 carried from 1942. Expenditures amounted to $78, and the bank balance to start the new term was $57.

Mrs. Clarke in her presidential address, said that the council has suffered to a great extent, because the women who formerly held executive positions, and the members themselves have been pressed with essential war work, thus making it difficult for them to give much time to the council. As president Mrs. Clarke said she attended the meetings in the legislative committee rooms, at which was set up a committee to inquire into the best way of handling juvenile delinquency in Alberta. She also attended meetings of the Alberta United War Services Council meetings at which a program on adult education was arranged. Recently, Mrs. Clarke and other members of the executive met Mrs. Rex Eaton, at one time president of the Toronto Local Council of Women, and at present head of the women's division of the Selective Service of Canada.

SECRETARY REPORTS

Mrs. J. L. Hollinshead, secretary, said that four general, eight executive and two special executive meetings were held in the last year. The following speakers were heard: Miss Jean Hinds and Miss Helen Magill, who explained how women's CBC programs were arranged, especially on the western network; Miss Margaret Fraser, superintendent of nurses at the Royal Alexandra hospital; Miss C. Hayward, executive secretary of the Canadian National Committee on Refugees; Dr. C. D. Taylor, Assistant Section Officer; Marjory Dipple, R.C.A.F. (W.D.); and Mrs. A. McCalla, who spoke on organizing day nurseries in Edmonton for the care of children of mothers employed in war and other essential work.

The council was requested by the National Council of Women, to sponsor through the Selective Service office, the registering of women for part time work in garment factories, cafes and laundries.

Mrs. Kate Lyons, head of the women's division of the Selective Service here told members how this was arranged in Eastern Canada. Mrs. E. P. Wellwood reported that there are 22 affiliation societies, and no new organizations were affiliated in 1943, although two were approached and are still considering the matter.

Supper Served Brownie Packs

Guiders of Brownie Packs in Edmonton were guests at a meeting in Garneau, when Brownies gave a demonstration of their work, under the leadership of Mrs. G. B. Taylor, Pack-Leader Joan Taylor and Miss Frances Brown.

Supper was served by Mrs. G. B. Sanford, aided by Mrs. A. E. A. Anderson, Mrs. R. B. Miller and Mrs. A. C. McGugan. Mrs. S. H. Gandler, deputy provincial commissioner, assisted by Miss Betty Martin, Blue Cord Guider, presided at a round table discussion.

Others present were: Miss F. Chaplin, Mrs. W. Everett, Mrs. D. de Wynter, Miss B. Templeton, Miss P. Martin, Miss Queenie Wershol, Mrs. P. A. Rooney, Mrs. G. Edgecombe, Mrs. T. Henry, Mrs. C. A. Lyndon, Mrs. A. H. Templeton, Mrs. A. Frame.

These conferences are, temporarily, taking the place of Guide training meetings. The next will be held in Robertson church at 7 p.m., Feb. 14. On Feb. 28, at 4:35 p.m. Guiders will meet with All Saints' Brownie Pack.

Under Gen. Crerar Full Canadian Army Corps "In Line" With 8th Army

By JACK BRAYLEY
OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—(CP)—Confirmation that a full Canadian army corps under Lt.-Gen. H. D. G. Crerar was "in the line" with the British 8th Army on the Italian Adriatic front was given here today.

It was previously known that Canadian formations were in action in Italy, that a Canadian corps was forming there under Gen. Crerar; but today's announcement from defence headquarters here was the first indication of the strength of the Canadians in action.

The announcement gave no hint of the formation of the corps, but it is known that the 1st Division is there and it is assumed that large reinforcements have arrived in Italy to build up the group to corps status.

Reports from time to time have given indications of the growing size of the Canadian force. Name of a Canadian armored formation, which has fought in every sector and includes Canadian tanks from the Three Rivers regiment, has appeared in front-line dispatches.

Douglas Amaron, Canadian Press war correspondent with the 8th Army, mentioned a Canadian medium artillery regiment in a Jan. 19 story on action south of the Arielli River, and this was the first indication that these mediums with their 5.5 guns firing 100-pound shells were supporting the 1st Division.

Previously the division had its own 25-pounder field regiments. This Canadian medium regiment went to Italy with a large contingent which landed last November and is part of the Canadian Corps artillery there.

Ross Munro, Canadian Press war correspondent in London, wrote recently it was possible that some fresh Canadian infantry and possibly some armored units were engaged in the Arielli fighting.

He also said there was a possibility some new troops from the Maritime Provinces, Central Ontario and Western Canada had arrived on the front to join the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, the Royal Edmonton Regiment and the Seaforth Highlanders, who fought the stern action at Ortona.

The new executive includes M. Baroni, Neepawa, Man.; D. McNeil, Yorkton, Sask.; R. S. Cruickshank, North Battleford, Sask.; C. H. McIntosh, Prince Albert, and D. B. Johnson, Vancouver.

The resolution calling for refusal of renewal for bank charters also calls for the Dominion to carry on the banking system of the country in place of the banks.

George Bevington, Winterburn, a farmers' union director, placed the bank motion before the convention during a "winding up" of business before adjournment. After an amendment by W. H. Childress, High River, it passed with little discussion.

Mr. Bevington's original motion reads as follows: "That whereas the people of Canada are entitled to demand that the financial system should be run equally for the benefit of all the people of Canada; and

"Whereas this has never yet been done; "Therefore we demand that at the decennial revision of the Bank Act the interests of the people demand that any co-operative organization which mobilizes real wealth shall have the right to hypothecate the documentary title to the real wealth of its patrons with the Bank of Canada and shall receive in exchange, at cost, the value in money represented by this produce at the existing market prices.

Mr. Childress' amendment called for cancellation of the banks' charters when revision of the Bank Act is undertaken, and for the Dominion to carry on the Canadian banking system.

After receiving amendment, the motion was speedily passed.

Text of the farm prices resolution, which scores the government's bonus and subsidy policies, is as follows: "Whereas the organized farmers of Canada have consistently asked for parity prices for principal farm products; and

"Whereas the federal government has consistently refused to grant parity and has instead placed Canadian farmers on a basis of relief by a system of petty bonuses and subsidies of various kinds;

"Be it resolved that we, the Alberta Farmers' Union, declare ourselves most emphatically opposed to bonuses, subsidies and handouts. We demand that the federal government establish prices for all principal farm products at a level which will give the agricultural people of Canada their fair share of the national income."

Moved by Henry Young, Millet, the agriculture resolution came from West Liberty local of the A.F.U. at Millet.

"We don't want charity," Mr. Young declared. "The government has given a handout on wheat, and now it is giving a handout on hogs. The fact that bonuses are being paid means that the government recognizes we are not getting enough for our hogs."

Another resolution passed Friday asks the provincial government to put the whole province on "Pacific War-time Daylight Saving Time," which would have the effect of returning Alberta timepieces to pre-war Mountain Standard time.

Mr. Young also moved adoption of this motion, and said, "It is not an important resolution, but one on which we should go on record."

The present time system he declared, was "an insult on peoples' intelligence to put it over on them. It was done by an order-in-council, not by an Act of Parliament."

He added that the present war time was "a useless restriction, one of several made to make the people war-conscious."

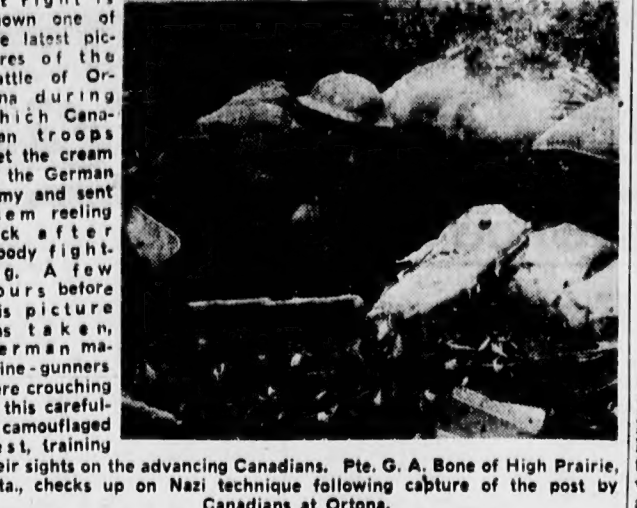

A third motion passed before the convention adjourned calls for a stronger voice for the A.F.U. on the Alberta Federation of Agriculture.

NOT SATISFACTORY
James Jackson, union president, speaking to this motion, said: "The present set-up is not as satisfactory as it should be."

"The commercial representatives (representatives of the pools and co-operatives) to the federation have over-ridden the farmer representation. Some people have lost sight of the fact that the co-ops belong to us, and that we farmers built the Wheat Pool."

"We want the viewpoint of the man on the land to go to Ottawa."

North Trapper Is Successful In Fur Appeal

George Magrum, Yellowknife district trapper, was successful Thursday in the appeal court in having set aside an order forfeiting to the crown $21,000 worth of furs. The forfeiture order was set aside on the ground that the magistrate was without jurisdiction to make the confiscation order.

Magrum was convicted of taking fur by poison bait, the conviction carrying a rider that all furs in his possession were to be forfeited to the crown.

The appeal taken against this conviction and the forfeiture order was dismissed and both conviction and order affirmed by stipendiary magistrate McKay Meikle. This decision was attacked by way of certiorari in the appeal court of Alberta, the court holding that the magistrate was without jurisdiction to make the forfeiture order. J. N. McDonald, K.C., Edmonton, acted for Magrum.

Subsequent to the seizure of the furs Mr. Magrum started supreme court action for illegal seizure of his furs and named A. F. Toitke, magistrate, McKay Meikle, Ottawa, stipendiary magistrate, Constable Elmer L. D. McDougall and Inspector A. G. Birch, R.C.M.P. officers, as defendants.

Garfield Guns, charged by R.C.M.P. with being in possession of morphine, had his case remanded to Feb. 7. No plea was taken, and he had bail set at $3,000. Bertha Reimer, similarly charged, was also remanded until the same date. No bail was set.

Irene Thomas and Charles Stack, each charged with homicide and theft, were remanded until Feb. 4. A third charge against the former was also remanded. A reduction from $4,000 to $1,500 in the amount of bail was asked by Hugh Calais McDonald, K.C., counsel for Stack. The request was granted and made applicable to both accused. Counsel for Irene Thomas is W. G. K. Bloom.

Fred Barman, charged with dangerous driving, was fined $25 or 35 days. The charge arose after a collision between a vehicle driven by the accused and another operated by an Egremont resident. Leaking gasoline and a cigarette butt combined to cause damage to the Egremont auto to the extent of $500 including damage from the accident.

The Navy will receive the closest co-operation from the Army and Air Force in filling new recruiting quotas in Alberta, it was announced Friday by Major J. H. Gainer, M.C., district recruiting officer for M.D. 13, following a combined meeting here Thursday.

Implementation of the policy of close integration in recruiting, decided upon recently, will be made now in the case of the Royal Canadian Navy.

The Navy, at the present time, is in need of recruits for several classes of service.

Attending the meeting, held at No. 3 R.C.A.F. recruiting centre, were: Maj. Gainer, Sqdn. Ldr. J. P. Hackney, commanding officer, No. 3 recruiting centre, and Lt. George Greenwood, D.S.C., of H.M.C.S. Gensuich.

Army and air force recruiting has been so closely integrated in Edmonton that the two services share office space both in recruiting for the active army and the C.W.A.C.

New Air Command In Mediterranean
ALGIERS, Jan. 28.—(CP)—General Sir Henry Maitland Wilson last night announced formation of a new air command, the Mediterranean Allied air force, under command of Lt.-Gen. Ira C. Eaker. The new command replaces the Mediterranean air command and the Northwest African air forces have officially passed out of existence.

The resolution urges that executive bodies of the two organizations meet at least once a year, and that every effort be made to present a united front when other organizations are approached by the two Alberta agricultural groups. It also expresses hope of "ultimate amalgamation" of the A.F.U. and the U.F.A.

The resolution passed without debate.

John Decore, Vegreville, defence counsel, questioning Constable Rosenberg, elicited the evidence that the complainant had promised the accused work as cook at a lumber camp but failed to implement this promise. It was the accused's intention to pay her debt through wages earned from this employment.

Province Loses "Great Servant" In Dr. Carpenter
CALGARY, Jan. 28.—(CP)—"We are losing a great public servant and will not soon see his like again," declared Dr. G. F. McNally, deputy minister of education, last night, when he referred to Dr. W. G. Carpenter, who recently retired from the position of principal of the institute of technology and art after 20 years service as director of technical education in Alberta.

The occasion was the reception and banquet in honor of Dr. Carpenter and Mrs. Carpenter and attended by Hon. Solon Low, minister of education.

Opinions Differ In Two Reports On Allowances

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—(CP)—Sharp difference of opinion on the introduction of family allowances—proposed by the government yesterday in the speech from the throne opening the new session of parliament—was expressed in the majority and minority reports of the national labor board's wage and labor relations inquiry, tabled in the house of commons today.

The majority report, submitted by Mr. Justice C. P. McTague, board chairman, and Leon Ladouceur, recommended a family-allowance scheme as an alternative to removing wage restrictions on workers earning less than 50 cents an hour.

J. L. Cohen, K.C., in a minority report, voiced flat opposition to the plan.

The majority report said the board had received clear evidence that a worker receiving 50 cents an hour or 62 1/2 week could not support a family at a proper living standard. The first proposal of the majority report was that an amended wage-control order should not apply to workers up to that wage level.

(The government after submission of the Labor Board reports introduced a new wage order which makes no distinction between income groups.)

ANOTHER PROPOSAL
"Another answer would appear to be a system of family allowances to be paid by the Dominion government," the majority report said. The family allowance could be made available to the worker who is the head of a family for each child below the age of 16 years, the allowance to be on a reducing scale for each subsequent child.

"We are aware that family allowances usually find their place in a general program of social security, rather than as a part of a wage-control policy."

"But sub-standard wages are indefensible at all times and if the authorities having the responsibility of policy with regard to fiscal matters and cost-price relationships do not see their way clear to remove during the war emergency the control of wages below the level of 50 cents, then we can think of no other solution for the ease of the head of a family who is receiving a sub-standard wage than a system of family allowances."

COHEN'S OPPOSITION
Mr. Cohen, who said he was "utterly opposed" to the scheme, said the two proposals of the majority report had "no conceivable relationship."

"The proposal to substitute some family-allowance relief measure instead of correcting sub-standard wages ignores the true character of wages," he said.

The proposal denied the principle of "equal pay for equal work," he contended, and ignored the fact that unmarried workers might have dependents or that they were entitled to provision for a future in which they could support dependents.

Mr. Cohen said such a scheme was commendable as part of a general social security program applying to both rural and urban areas; but it should not be introduced as a correction for low wage standards.

"I cannot think of any proposal which would do more damage to national unity than one which would inevitably carry such taxation consequences," he said.

Court Dismisses Charge of Theft
Finding that there was no criminal intent and that the case was a civil rather than a criminal matter, Chief Justice W. C. Ives, in supreme court Friday, dismissed a theft charge against Miss Rose Hanlyshyn, Vegreville.

She was charged with the theft of four calves, valued at $60, the property of Fred Kolody, Vegreville district lumberman. It was alleged by the crown that the accused, who had given a bill of sale for the calves to Kolody, had disposed of them, and had failed to account to the complainant for the proceeds.

Constable A. H. Rosegren, R.C.M.P., told the court that the accused had admitted selling the calves. In her statement to the constable she denied that she owed the plaintiff $60, setting the amount owing at $20, the balance of the account having been worked out through sale of green feed to, and work done for the complainant.

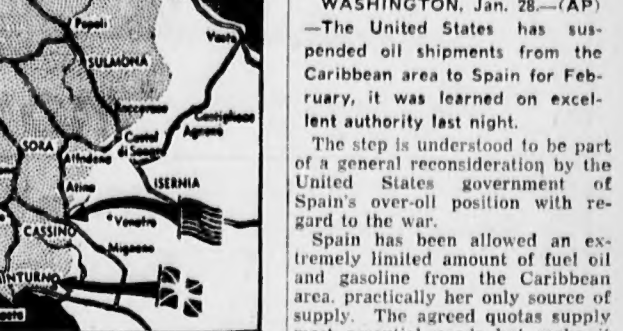

John Decore, Vegreville, defence counsel, questioning Constable Rosegren, elicited the evidence that the complainant had promised the accused work as cook at a lumber camp but failed to implement this promise. It was the accused's intention to pay her debt through wages earned from this employment.

Province Loses "Great Servant" In Dr. Carpenter
CALGARY, Jan. 28.—(CP)—"We are losing a great public servant and will not soon see his like again," declared Dr. G. F. McNally, deputy minister of education, last night, when he referred to Dr. W. G. Carpenter, who recently retired from the position of principal of the institute of technology and art after 20 years service as director of technical education in Alberta.

The occasion was the reception and banquet in honor of Dr. Carpenter and Mrs. Carpenter and attended by Hon. Solon Low, minister of education.

Daily War Map—Exclusively in The Edmonton Bulletin

The Germans have finally mustered enough of their reserves to hurl furious attacks on the new Allied beachhead established below Rome. The German attacks were aimed at driving the Allies off the Apennine Way which is now blocked, cutting the Nazis on the Cassino front off from supplies.

Alberta Farmers' Union Asks Government Refuse Renewal Banks Charters

Demands that Canadian banks be refused renewal of their charters when the Bank Act comes before the House of Commons for revision, and that the Dominion government establish higher prices for principal farm products, were voiced by resolution at concluding sessions of the Alberta Farmers' Union convention in this city Friday morning.

The resolution calling for refusal of renewal for bank charters also calls for the Dominion to carry on the banking system of the country in place of the banks.

George Bevington, Winterburn, a farmers' union director, placed the bank motion before the convention during a "winding up" of business before adjournment. After an amendment by W. H. Childress, High River, it passed with little discussion.

Mr. Bevington's original motion reads as follows: "That whereas the people of Canada are entitled to demand that the financial system should be run equally for the benefit of all the people of Canada; and

"Whereas this has never yet been done; "Therefore we demand that at the decennial revision of the Bank Act the interests of the people demand that any co-operative organization which mobilizes real wealth shall have the right to hypothecate the documentary title to the real wealth of its patrons with the Bank of Canada and shall receive in exchange, at cost, the value in money represented by this produce at the existing market prices.

Mr. Childress' amendment called for cancellation of the banks' charters when revision of the Bank Act is undertaken, and for the Dominion to carry on the Canadian banking system.

After receiving amendment, the motion was speedily passed.

Text of the farm prices resolution, which scores the government's bonus and subsidy policies, is as follows: "Whereas the organized farmers of Canada have consistently asked for parity prices for principal farm products; and

"Whereas the federal government has consistently refused to grant parity and has instead placed Canadian farmers on a basis of relief by a system of petty bonuses and subsidies of various kinds;

"Be it resolved that we, the Alberta Farmers' Union, declare ourselves most emphatically opposed to bonuses, subsidies and handouts. We demand that the federal government establish prices for all principal farm products at a level which will give the agricultural people of Canada their fair share of the national income."

Moved by Henry Young, Millet, the agriculture resolution came from West Liberty local of the A.F.U. at Millet.

"We don't want charity," Mr. Young declared. "The government has given a handout on wheat, and now it is giving a handout on hogs. The fact that bonuses are being paid means that the government recognizes we are not getting enough for our hogs."

Another resolution passed Friday asks the provincial government to put the whole province on "Pacific War-time Daylight Saving Time," which would have the effect of returning Alberta timepieces to pre-war Mountain Standard time.

Mr. Young also moved adoption of this motion, and said, "It is not an important resolution, but one on which we should go on record."

The present time system he declared, was "an insult on peoples' intelligence to put it over on them. It was done by an order-in-council, not by an Act of Parliament."

He added that the present war time was "a useless restriction, one of several made to make the people war-conscious."

A third motion passed before the convention adjourned calls for a stronger voice for the A.F.U. on the Alberta Federation of Agriculture.

NOT SATISFACTORY
James Jackson, union president, speaking to this motion, said: "The present set-up is not as satisfactory as it should be."

"The commercial representatives (representatives of the pools and co-operatives) to the federation have over-ridden the farmer representation. Some people have lost sight of the fact that the co-ops belong to us, and that we farmers built the Wheat Pool."

"We want the viewpoint of the man on the land to go to Ottawa."

United States Halts Shipment Of Oil to Spain

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(AP)—The United States has suspended oil shipments from the Caribbean area to Spain for February, it was learned on excellent authority last night.

The step is understood to be part of a general reconsideration by the United States government of Spain's over-all position with regard to the war.

Spain has been allowed an extremely limited amount of fuel oil and gasoline from the Caribbean area, practically her only source of supply. The agreed quotas supply most essential needs but make it virtually impossible for Spain to gather any reserves.

RECONSIDER POSITION
Matters involved in reconsideration of Spain's position regarding the war include that country's failure to release Italian ships interned in her ports, to control adequately German agents operating on her territory, and reduce export of war materials to Germany.

The climactic step on Spain's part was the negotiation recently of an agreement with Germany providing 400,000,000 pesetas credit (about $40,000,000) to the Nazis.

The credit was accorded Germany as payment for debts incurred during the Spanish civil war.

Disregard Rules On Installations

Asserting that disregard by citizens of building by-law regulations regarding installation of fireplaces, electric wiring and plumbing was by no means an unusual occurrence members of the gas approval board, at a meeting held Thursday, pointed out that breaches of these by-laws carry, on conviction, a penalty up to $100 and the costs of the action.

It was pointed out that in some cases offenders were not caught because the alterations are interior and not easily discovered.

Owing to fires caused from improperly constructed fireplaces considerable concern is felt by members of the committee over these occurrences.

Unauthorized and uninspected installations of fireplaces frequently are defective, and have resulted in partial or complete asphyxiation from leakage and fumes, it is pointed out.

It is pointed out also that a misconception exists regarding the taking out of permits for this type of alteration. All such work, no matter the cost of the project, must be authorized by the city building department. The common belief that such work costing less than $50 does not need a permit is erroneous.

Admiralty Islands Get Heaviest Raid

By DON CASWELL
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin Copyright, 1944, by British United Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Jan. 28.—Allied Liberator bombers intensify efforts to sever supply lines feeding Rabaul, Japan's last major bastion in the southwest Pacific, with the heaviest raid of the war on the strategic enemy-held Admiralty Islands, a communique announced today.

No enemy interception was encountered as the heavy bombers ranged over the island group 370 miles northwest of Rabaul Wednesday to drop 120 tons of explosives on Momote airfield and the nearby Salami plantation on Los Negros Island.

As the Allied planes raided the strategic islands for the third time in three days, reports indicated that Rabaul apparently had not recovered from a smashing 10-day air assault which destroyed or damaged more than 155 planes and knocked out approximately 150,000 tons of enemy shipping.

have never known before," said the pamphlet, devoted largely to a review of the C.M.A.'s organization for the war and the post-war period.
